Hi Karl
A 1st version. I'm not good in concise English.
My recommendation for first cuts are in (...).
But it needs deeper editing. I've seen many writers come very close to 200 words.
Try not to kill the balance of pro/con insinuations.
In any case send it back to me for final approval before sending it upstairs.
Btw, who's going to participate in the Gala evening? Is it worth coming to NY two days earlier than my plans? Will you be there?
Best
